10 Comic Panels

Meet the Greenfield Community

Setting: Greenfield City

Arjun

Lead Campaigner

College student who identifies the waste issue and initiates the neighborhood clean drive.

Ravi

Co-Organizer

Arjun's friend who helps mobilize youth, structure logistics, and rally shopkeepers.

Residents

Community Members

Children, parents, and local business owners who shift their daily waste disposal habits.

Sanitation Team

Essential Support

Municipal workers partnering with citizens for efficient waste collection and segregation.

ACT I: THE CHALLENGE

Panels 1 & 2: Greenfield in Trouble

PANEL 1 — SCENE SETTING

Beautiful streets marred by litter.

Caption: "A clean city begins with clean habits."

PANEL 2 — ARJUN'S REALIZATION

Plastic bottles and food wrappers scattered everywhere.

Arjun: "This is our home too. Why are we making it dirty?"

Panels 3 & 4: An Idea Is Born

PANEL 3 — THE SPARK

Arjun proposes a local neighborhood drive to Ravi.

Ravi: “If we start, maybe others will join us!”

PANEL 4 — AWARENESS DRIVE

Putting up educational posters around the block.

Arjun: “Don’t just throw it away—put it in the right place.”

Waste Segregation at Source

Resident: “Separating waste makes recycling and composting easier.”

Waste Segregation Bins Comic Illustration

Green Bin – Wet Waste

Food scraps, vegetable peels & organic matter for composting.

Blue Bin – Dry Waste

Paper, plastic bottles, glass & cardboard for recycling plants.

Red Bin – Domestic Hazardous

Batteries, medical waste & e-waste for safe isolation.

Panels 6 & 7: Everyone Joins In

PANEL 6 — UNIFIED MOVEMENT

Children, parents, shopkeepers & municipal staff clean together.

Caption: "A small effort becomes a community movement."

PANEL 7 — IMMEDIATE RESULTS

Clean roads, litter-free drains & widespread use of cloth bags.

Ravi: "Look at the difference! Our street already feels better."

Keeping It Clean: Everyday Habits

Arjun: “Cleaning once is not enough. Keeping it clean is the real goal.”

Use Public Bins

Never toss litter on roads or footpaths; hold waste until finding a bin.

Avoid Plastic

Switch to cloth shopping bags, refillable metal water bottles, and reusable cutlery.

Separate Waste

Segregate wet organic waste from dry recyclable plastics and glass daily.

Report Overflows

Alert municipal sanitation teams promptly when public bins fill up.

ACT IV: THE TRANSFORMATION

Panels 9 & 10: Greenfield Restored

PANEL 9 — WEEKS LATER

Cleaner streets, flourishing public parks & proud residents.

Caption: "When responsibility becomes a habit, a city can change."

PANEL 10 — THE FINAL MESSAGE

Arjun and friends in a pristine park with the glowing city skyline.

Arjun: "A clean city is everyone's responsibility."

The 4 Principles of Clean Living

REDUCE

Cut down non-essential packaging and single-use plastics before purchase.

REUSE

Opt for durable containers, carry cloth bags, and repurpose household goods.

SEGREGATE

Strictly separate wet organic waste from dry materials at home and school.

RECYCLE

Ensure clean plastic, paper, and glass reach designated recycling facilities.

STORY MORAL

“A clean city is not created by one person—
it is created when citizens, communities,
and public services work together.”

Small actions by many people create a big change.
